AN ISSUE FOURTH.

THE city council of Stockton, California, has placed its ban upon the "same Fourth of July" and has lifted the ban from the insane Fourth.

But for the relative authority of the press dispatches it would be difficult to believe that there is a municipal government in America composed of men of so little sense.

This appears to be a direct result of a phase of the "preparedness" campaign. It is based upon the principle that patriotism is largely confined of name and of danger to the other fellow.

MR. JUSTICE BRANDEIS.

WITH the confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis as an associate justice of the supreme court a large number of Republican newspapers published editorials beginning with the statement that "the Brandeis incident is closed."

The favorite charge of newspaper editors in judicial selection has been "lack of judicial temperament."

POISONERS OF PROSPERITY.

UNABLE to deny longer the probability of the United States the prospect of disaster have turned their efforts in proving that the nation-wide business spirit is "un-satisfactory."

are making money faster than at any period in the history of the country. American working men who are earning higher wages than ever before, are being told that in fact they are not prospering at all.

"You are so prosperous that there is something the matter with it," is this curious Republican campaign argument.

It all resolves itself back into the old and only argument. The Republicans want the offices. They want the offices so badly that many of them are willing to forget their recent hatreds for each other.

A great campaign was waged to convince this nation that it was not prosperous. Great sums of money were expended in carrying it out. The campaign failed.

Now another campaign is being waged to try to convince the American people that their property is poisoned, that there is something wrong with it, something unsafe in it and that it can be continued only by a change of national administration.

The great mass of the American people are satisfied with existing business conditions. They resist the present national administration. They want no change.

WAR PROPHETS.

ON May 30, speaking in the house of representatives on the naval appropriation bill, Congressman William Elza Williams of Illinois, said:

"I do not anticipate the German fleet will ever emerge from its shelter and engage the English fleet in battle."

A few hours after this able war prophet ceased speaking the greatest battle of naval history was being fought in the North sea.

It may be said, with fairness, that Congressman William Elza Williams of Illinois is just about as well informed about what will and will not happen in the European struggle as the rest of the war prophets who daily inflict their forecasts and predictions upon us.

ROWING HONORS ARE DISTRIBUTED RATHER WIDELY

Three Events On Pacific Coast and Eight in East End With Princeton and Washington in Lead.

(By Evening Herald Special Wire) New York, June 5.—With the exception of the four-mile regatta at Poughkeepsie and New London, the intercollegiate rowing season has closed with honors rather widely distributed so far as the dual and triangular events are concerned.

Princeton competed in three regattas, winning two and finishing second in the other. The Tigers defeated Harvard at Princeton on April 29 by a foot in a mile and 1/2 race and won the Child's cup at Philadelphia on May 12 by outrowing Navy, Columbia and Pennsylvania in a one mile 550 yards race.

The Navy crew won from a Washington boat club eight in a two mile race on April 15 and later defeated Pennsylvania only to lose to Syracuse and Princeton in other races. Stanford also had a victory over California; Pennsylvania defeated Yale; Harvard won from Cornell and Cornell defeated Princeton and Yale.

April 15—Annapolis—2 miles; Navy 1:12 length; Princeton 1:27 1/2; Annapolis, P. C. 1:30 1/2.

April 20—Princeton—1 1/2 miles; Princeton 1:10 1/2; Harvard 1:15 1/2.

April 22—Philadelphia—1 1/2 miles; Pennsylvania 1:13 length; Princeton 1:18 1/2.

April 23—Annapolis—1 1/2 miles; Navy 1:12 length; Princeton 1:27 1/2; Annapolis, P. C. 1:30 1/2.

May 13—Philadelphia—1 mile 350 yards; Princeton 1:10 length; Navy 2nd; Columbia 3rd; Pennsylvania last.

May 20—Boston—1 1/2 miles; Harvard 1:12 length; Princeton 1:27 1/2.

May 29—Annapolis—2 miles; Syracuse 1:14 length; Princeton 1:27 1/2.

May 27—Seattle—3 miles; Washington 1:16 length; Stanford 1:20 1/2.

May 27—Ithaca—2 miles; Cornell 1:14 length; Princeton 1:27 1/2; Yale 1:30 1/2.

*For the child's cup.

The excellent showing made by the Princeton crew this year has led to the revival of rumors that the Tigers were about ready to broaden their rowing policy and would be seen at either the New London or Poughkeepsie regattas in 1917.

FLAG DAY. A Proclamation By the Governor. The 14th of this month will be the 139th anniversary of the adoption of the Stars and Stripes as the flag of our country, the emblem of freedom.

Wherever it floats not only protection of life and property but absolute freedom of thought and action within the law ought to be reality to all.

The stress of present conditions must attach unusual significance to our flag. The glory of its past should electrify the sentiment of the present and strengthen the high resolve of every real true American citizen.

Now, therefore, I, William C. McDonald, governor of the state of New Mexico, do hereby proclaim Wednesday, June 14, 1916, as Flag Day in the state of New Mexico.

Let the folds of the beautiful flag float from every public and private building and adorn every home on this day, so that we may fully appreciate our peaceful conditions under it and be prepared for any emergency to protect what it represents for our people and country.

Done at the executive office this 2d day of June, A. D. 1916. WILLIAM C. McDONALD, Governor.

Government Now Buying Two-year Colts for Mounts

Deming, N. M., June 6.—That the country now is experiencing a horse famine and that the government is buying colts at 1st price and conditioning them for use as cavalry and artillery horses, were statements here last week of C. W. Flowers, a California horse dealer who is well known in this state.

"I met," he said, "six government buyers in Phoenix alone last week, and no limit has been placed on the number of animals which they are allowed to purchase. It may not be generally known, but the United States is now buying two year old colts fifteen hands high, and is paying $150 each for them.

The authorities are taking for granted that statements here last week of C. W. Flowers, a California horse dealer who is well known in this state.

"You know that the horse business was terribly neglected, because people thought that owing to the great use and demand for automobiles and perfecting of the gas engine, that there would never be any use for horses again, and as a result we are now having the biggest horse famine ever recorded and we expect to see it continue for the next five years, at least."
